Rackspace Technology will help you harness the power of modern data analytics and AI

Delivering a data modernization solution on Google Cloud that monetizes your data by uncovering new use cases for increasing business efficiencies and customer engagement with up to 70% reduction in implementation time and cost.

Getting Your Data Architecture Right

With a fully integrated data environment, your applications will get the data they need when they need it. Your team can intelligently make business and IT decisions that will drive the most value to your customers and have the greatest impact to your business's bottom line.

A customized approach to data modernization delivers tangible business results that accelerate innovation and increase ROI:

- An end-to-end solution aligned to your business needs and objectives that ensures expected outcomes are achieved.
- An agile delivery process that simplifies your modernization journey, reduces development time from months to weeks, and decreases costs through implementation savings and operating efficiencies.
- Comprehensive business and customer analytics dashboards with self-serve access to key stakeholders across your organization that streamline decision-making and deliver a deeper understanding of your customers.
- A path to enable and operationalize AI across your organization that powers intelligent applications and predictive analytics that enable proactive decision making to quickly adapt to your customers' changing needs.

Rackspace Technology Transforms Its Data into an Enabler

Faced with fragmented data, we needed to modernize our stack, build trust and improve time to insight.

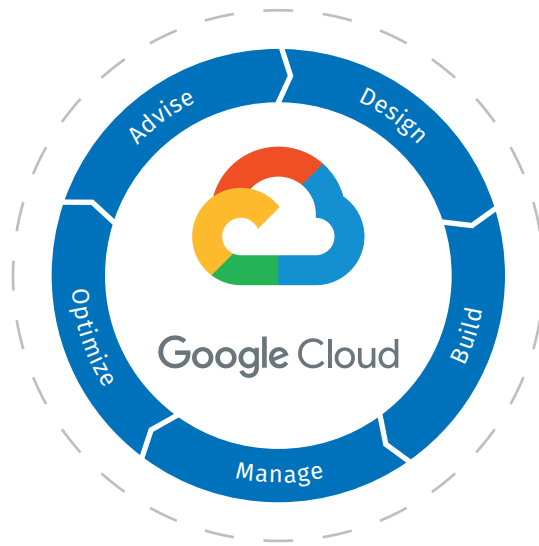

In only 5 months, we harmonized all Rackspace data on GCP, reduced production errors, decommissioned 20 Enterprise SQL Servers, consolidated 400+ dashboards into just 20, improved NPS, reduced churn and built trust in our data. This project helped free more than $1 million that could be invested elsewhere.

“Our data is driving better insights. Through deeper understanding of the ‘what’ and the ‘why’ behind customer needs, we can better recommend the ‘how.’”
