

Hosted Exchange and Rackspace Email Hybrid

Combine Hosted Microsoft Exchange with Rackspace Email and save.

Give your power users the robust feature set of Hosted Microsoft Exchange, while lighter users enjoy affordable, business-class Rackspace Email — all on the same domain. Plus, you can manage all of your Rackspace Email and Hosted Exchange mailboxes in a centralized control panel.

Experts Dedicated to Your Success

As a leading email provider with deep hosting knowledge, the email and productivity specialists at Rackspace can help you choose, deploy and manage the right solution for your business.

Key Features and Benefits

Reduced email cost: When you combine Hosted Exchange with Rackspace Email, your business can meet the needs of all your users, while addressing your budget constraints. For example, a 50-user company can save 40% by moving half its users to Rackspace Email, compared to using Hosted Exchange alone.

Administrator support: Give your email administrators the support they need. They can contact Rackspace email specialists around the clock, via phone, chat or ticket, to get help with their Hosted Exchange and Rackspace Email accounts and mailboxes. It's all included, at no extra cost. Plus, you're always backed by industry-leading SLAs and a 100% Uptime Guarantee.

Centralized management: A hybrid solution creates a seamless experience for your email administrators. From one simple control panel, you can add, remove and edit mailboxes, create aliases, set up email forwarding and more, across your Exchange and Rackspace Email users. One login, and one centralized location for managing it all.

Business-class features: No matter whether you choose Rackspace Email or Hosted Exchange, you'll always have premium anti-spam and anti-virus protection, free self-service and assisted migrations, mobile access, Outlook compatibility, a 100% Uptime Guarantee and access to unlimited 24x7x365 expert support from Rackspace. Plus, you have the option of adding email archiving and cloud-based file storage, across your account.
