

RACKSPACE DEDICATED NETWORK ATTACHED STORAGE (DNAS)

Fully managed, highly customizable storage solution ideal for file-based deployments.

Data storage needs are unique. Our depth of expertise and dedicated NAS technology allow us to handle an array of storage needs. Rackspace DNAS scales up or down based on your business requirements and is an ideal solution for file workload deployments. This solution can also handle your block storage needs. With our 24x7x365, fully-managed dedicated NAS solution, you can focus on what's important to you and your business.

WHY RACKSPACE FOR DNAS?

Dedicated NAS solutions best serve file workloads, with very high availability, snapshot, clone and application demands. Our DNAS solution is multi-protocol and also handles iSCSI or Fibre Channel block workloads.

KEY BENEFITS

Dedicated NAS from Rackspace includes design and build services based on your specific data needs, in addition to the following benefits:

- Scalability: In one storage cluster, scales up to 20PBs and from two nodes (controllers) to 24 nodes (controllers), with zero downtime.
- Highly customizable: Meets your unique requirements with entry-level hybrid to high performance all flash platforms, protocol types, advanced features or expansion shelves for 12 or 24 drives chosen to best address your needs.
- High performance for critical applications: Option to tier workloads so that your critical applications are always prioritized for best performance.
- Efficient data protection: Provides built-in deduplication and compression. Includes the ability to configure snapshots and data replication to meet recovery point objectives.
- Multiple protocol support: Ideal for file solutions and able to support block (iSCSI, FC) workloads for maximum flexibility and data versatility.
- Enterprise-ready reliability: Powered by best-in-class Netapp, the established leader in storage platforms, and backed by an industry leading 99.99% SLA.
